

March 9, 1984

LB 809, 928

DeWitt, Nebraska. They are under the north balcony. Would you please stand. Senator Landis has some guests in the north balcony from Lincoln, Nebraska, all of them, Park West Christian Schools, twelve students, and Bob Weinbarger. I assume Mr. Weinbarger is the teacher. Would you folks please stand. Thank you. Senator Scofield has some guests in the north balcony. They are eleven students Seven through Twelfth Grade from the Chadron Christian School. Phyllis Osborn and Kathy Atchison are their teachers. Would you please stand. Thank you. And Senator Beyer has some guests in the south balcony, 60 students in the Fourth Grade from Gretna Public Schools in Gretna, Nebraska, Les Tebbenkamp is their teacher. Will you please stand. Thank you. And under the north balcony Senator Hefner has guests, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Frericks of Coleridge, Nebraska. Would you please stand. Thank you. It looks like we are ready to go on the bill of the afternoon, LB 928. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, right before that, Senator DeCamp has amendments to be printed in the Journal to 809. (See pages 1493-95 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, LB 928 was introduced by the Education Committee and signed by its members. The bill as introduced was a comprehensive bill. It was referred to the Education Committee for hearing. The bill was advanced to General File. Mr. President, it was considered by the Legislature on February 13 of this year. At that time there was an amendment offered by Senators Vickers, Hoagland, Howard Peterson and DeCamp to the bill. There was an amendment to that amendment by Senator Beutler that was adopted. I now have, Mr. President, a series of amendments to that amendment.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Vickers, why don't we start so that you explain what the bill is and what it does at this time so that we can have a place to start from. Would you do that for us, please?

SENATOR VICKERS: Mr. President, I would ask the Vice-Chairman of the committee, Senator Hoagland, who also is one of the co-sponsors of the amendment to explain the